

I want very much for local radio to continue to represent local views; be live radio; cover local events. I am opposed to allowing large broadcasting syndicates to be able to dominate regional markets.

Bring back local radio!